SUTHERLAND CASE READY FOR TRIAL

Remanded to Circuit Court of Dickenson County by Judge McDowell.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Big Stone Gap, Va., August 17.—The regular semi-annual term of the United States Circuit and District Court convened here on Monday. The docket is a very heavy one, but already a large number of cases have been disposed of, as in a number of cases the defendants confess judgment and the fine is imposed by the judge and the case does not go before the jury.

The most interesting case on the docket was that of C. D. Sutherland, the alleged absconding cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Clintwood, which was heard on Tuesday. Sutherland disappeared on Saturday, July 2, 1910. He went to Clintwood, about fifteen miles distant, to spend the Fourth of July, he said. The bank was, of course, closed on Sunday and also on Monday, which was the Fourth and a legal holiday. When Sutherland did not report for duty on Tuesday, July 5, the officials suspected trouble, and when an inspection of the vault was made, the lock was found set for ninety-six hours, and the doors could not be opened until Wednesday afternoon.

When the doors were opened it was found that about $10,000 of the bank's funds was missing, and a note was found from Sutherland which read, "Gone to the tall timber."

Sutherland disappeared completely, and all hopes of his capture had been abandoned, when on July 6 he was arrested by W. W. Phaup and Walter Belk, detectives, at Kimball, W. Va., where he was working as a miner. Sutherland is about thirty-five years of age, belongs to the most prominent families of Dickenson county and has held many responsible positions.

Sutherland had been indicted in the Circuit Court of Dickenson county and also in the Federal court, and the question as to which court had jurisdiction was argued before Judge McDowell at great length by the attorneys for the defendant and the district attorney, Mr. Gillespie. Judge McDowell remanded the case to the Circuit Court of Dickenson county, and it will be heard at the next term of that court, which convenes in September, after which it will again be heard in the Federal court.

Another interesting case on the docket is that of a postal robbery in Dickenson county. Witnesses have been brought from Chicago and other distant points to testify in this case.

RECORD BROKEN IN COLLECTIONS

Washington, D. C., August 17.—Total internal revenue for the year ended on June 30 amounted to $222,526,260, a sum $12,000,000 greater than that collected in 1909, which heretofore had the record. The cost of collection has been 1.68 per cent. The government collected $22,000,000 more than it did the year previous. The increase in the corporation tax alone was $12,000,000.

The increase derived from taxes on spirits was $7,000,000; tobacco, $8,800,000; beer, $3,700,000. Illinois paid the greatest tax of any State or Territory. Collections totaled $53,000,000. New York was second, with $44,000,000, and Indiana third, with $31,000,000.

Tax Collector a Suicide. Johnstown, Pa., August 17.—Henry G. Royer, delinquent tax collector of Cambria county, shot and killed himself in a room at the Merchants' Hotel here to-day. His wife said he had been suffering from nervousness.

WOULD PREVENT TRIVIAL CASES

Washington, D. C., August 17.—With 170,000 cases pending before the General Board of Appraisers, some restriction that will prevent the filing of trivial protests against customs collections is absolutely necessary, according to Assistant Secretary of the Treasury James F. Curtis. Mr. Curtis, explaining his plan of customs reorganization to the House Treasury Department Expenditures Committee to-day, urged the passage of a bill imposing a fee of not less than $1 on each protest. No fee is charged now, and protests are filed on the slightest pretext. Consequently, Mr. Curtis said, the appraisers are hopelessly swamped, though 66,000 cases were disposed of last year.

DOWN AND OUT; TIRED OF STRUGGLE

Former Prosperous Man Commits Crime to Be Arrested.

Chicago, August 17.—Penniless and discouraged, William McDermott, sixty-one years old, who says he was once president of the Fred E. Hoth Brewing Company, of Pittsburg, and that he has a brother, James McDermott, a prominent physician of La Porte, Ind., threw a brick through a store window that he might be arrested and sent to jail. He pleaded guilty when arraigned in court, but the hearing was continued until tomorrow.

McDermott came to Chicago from Benton, Neb., several months ago and
